SATURDAY, DEC. 18, 1897.

A Western exchange declares that the people have no interest in an astronomer who is only able to discover an object. What it wants is an astronomer who can discover the sun itself.

There have been a number of burglaries in Calais late, the City Marshal has issued an order that every person who is able to discover an object. What it wants is an astronomer who can discover the sun itself.

President McKinley has appointed Hon. W. W. Thomas, of Portland, Maine, to Sweden and Norway. Mr. Thomas had a very strong endorsement for the position and the appointment will give general satisfaction. Mr. Thomas was first appointed by President Arthur and again by President Harrison so that he is perfectly familiar with the duties of the office and is held in high esteem by the people of Sweden and Norway.

Has anybody heard any complaints from the hundreds of thousands of railroad men who voted for McKinley and sound money last year? The railroad earnings, which have steadily increased since the revival of prosperity immediately following the election of 1896, continue to grow, the November earnings of 104 railroads showing an increase of 21 percent over November of the preceding year, being the largest gain which any month of the calendar year has presented when compared with the corresponding month of the preceding year.

The expected has happened in the appointment of Attorney General McKenna to succeed Justice Field on the Supreme Bench. Mr. McKenna, although born in Philadelphia, went to California with his parents while still a small boy. He served in the legislature and as District Attorney and was elected a member of Congress in 1884. He was re-elected three times and was a member of the Ways and Means Committee of which President McKinley was chairman. In 1892 he was appointed to the United States Circuit Bench from which position he retired to enter President McKinley's Cabinet. He will be succeeded in the Cabinet by Gov. Griggs, of New Jersey.

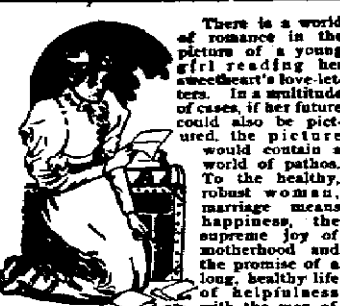

City and town elections occurring in the State of Washington recently have shown a decided reaction against the Populists. Much of the change is due to returning prosperity and the reluctance to discontinue Populist rule. The reaction is so significant that the Republicans are claiming confidently that they will carry the State in next year's election. The stamp of Washington to Populism was one of the surprises of the Presidential campaign of 1896. The State had shown so much energy and progress and its future looked so bright that it was counted as safely on the sound money side. The delusion of free silverism had made greater inroads than supposed, however, but the crisis proved to be of short duration. The signs are that it is already disappearing and that the voters of Washington are re-estimating their judgment. Like the result in Kansas it bodes ill for Mr. Bryan and his party.

The wool-growers of the country, who have sold their wools at a large increase over Wilson tariff law prices, having about exhausted their stock, the woolen mills are compelled to look to the foreign markets for an additional supply in spite of the fact that heavy importations have made during the pendency of the McKinley tariff bill. Large contracts have recently been placed abroad for foreign wool, and it is expected that these importations will begin early next month and add materially to the earnings of the new tariff law. The manufacturers of woolen goods have been running on full time and over time since the enactment of the McKinley law, and this fact accounts both for the largely increased price of domestic wools and the necessity for sending abroad for a supply with which to meet the short, scarce domestic wools due to the destruction of American flocks while the Willow law was in operation.

"The Warning of the Deficit." The New York Evening Post thinks the decision of the Republicans to make no tariff changes this winter is commendable in that it will give the people an opportunity to realize the full possibilities of the existing law, and avoid the business disturbance that might follow from an agitation of the deficit. At the same time the Post says that law has not furnished the necessary revenue and in its opinion never will. While the free trade Post is thus mourning over the alleged tariff failure, the Boston Herald notes the warning of the deficit as one of the encouraging conditions. The Herald says:

We called attention last week to the very gratifying fact that during the past few months there had been a continuous and considerable growth in the revenue, reckoning it by its average receipts for the business days of each month, the latest standard month being used for such a measurement. We noted also, that December, as far as it had come, was showing a very strong movement in the same upward direction. The movement is still in full force. The average of receipts per business day, which stood at $1,088,421. This is a very favorable showing. It continued through the rest of the month, the receipts for December will figure out $27,210,843. This would be an increase of $1,353,411 over the receipts for December, 1896, and an increase of $91,008 over the receipts in December, 1895. We may add that, if the expenditures for the month should result in about the level of December, 1896, when they amounted to no more than $22,812,654, the month would show quite a handsome surplus.

A still more impressive possibility lies before us. If we may suppose the number of the present fiscal year will be very nearly identical with the same period in the past fiscal year, the receipts for the month of December, 1897, will be $27,210,843, and the expenditures for the same period in the past fiscal year were $22,812,654. The surplus for the month would be $4,398,189. The surplus for the month would be $4,398,189.

There is a world of romance in the picture of a young girl reading her mother's letters. In a multitude of cases, if her future could be decided, it would be decided by the picture of a young girl reading her mother's letters. To the healthy, robust woman, a mother's letter means happiness, the supreme joy of motherhood and the promise of a long, healthy life of helpfulness with the man of her choice. To the woman who suffers from weakness of the delicate and important organs concerned in motherhood, mother's letters mean suffering and material death. Dr. R. V. Pierce is an eminent and skillful specialist, for thirty years consulting physician to the Lindsley Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y. During that time, with the assistance of a staff of able physicians, he has prescribed for thousands of women. The institute of which he is the head is one of the greatest in the world. He is a regularly graduated physician and has received his diploma from the University of Buffalo, N. Y. The regard in which he is held by those whom he has treated is shown by the thousands of letters printed in Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, telling of the benefits derived from his treatment.

Dr. Pierce is the discoverer of a wonderful medicine for women, known as Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It cures all weakness and disease of the feminine organs. It allays inflammation, heals ulceration and soothes the pain. It builds up the system during the interesting period, it banishes the usual discomforts and makes the woman feel like a new creature. Thousands of women have testified to its marvelous merits. An honest druggist would advise a woman to take it. The profit side of life is health. The balance sheet of a woman's life is her health. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation and make the blood rich and pure. They never gripe. By druggists.

WHAT MAN DOES NOT LOVE BEAUTY?

Mrs. Pinkham Counsels Young Wives to Keep Their Attractiveness. A Letter From a Young Wife.

Seven-eighths of the men in this world marry a woman because she is beautiful in their eyes.
What a disappointment must then be to the fair young wife's beauty fading away before a year passes over her head!
I feel as if I would like to say to every young woman who is about to be married: "Strengthen yourself in advance, so that you will not break down under the new strain on your power." Keep your beauty, it is a precious possession! Your husband loves your beauty, he is proud to be seen in public with you; try to keep it for his sake, and your own.
The pale cheeks, the dark shadows under the eyes, the general drooping of the young wife's form, what do they mean? They mean that her nerves are failing, that her strength is going, and that something must be done to stop her through the coming trials of maternity.
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. You can get it at any druggist's.
Following we publish by request a letter from a young wife of her own accord she addresses it to her "suffering sisters," and while from modesty she is withheld her name, she gives her initials and street number in Chambersburg, Pa., so she can easily be found personally or by letter:
To my Suffering Sisters: Let me write this for your benefit, telling you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I am but nineteen, and suffered with painful menstruation, nervousness, dizziness, burning of the head, and on top of my head, nervousness, pain and soreness of muscles, bearing-down pains, could not sleep well, was unable to stand without pain, and oh how I longed to be well!
One day I wrote to Mrs. Pinkham telling her all, knowing I could do so in perfect confidence. She wrote me a lovely letter in reply, telling me exactly what to do. After taking one bottle of the Compound, one box of Liver Pills, and using one-half package of Sanative wash, I can say I am cured. I am so happy, and owe my happiness to none other than Mrs. Pinkham.
Why will women suffer who help is near? Let me, as one who has had some experience, urge all suffering women, especially young wives, to seek Mrs. Pinkham's advice.—Mrs. R. S. R., 113 E. Catherine St., Chambersburg, Pa.
